CHARGED WITH MURDER

Georgia Allyn Sampson, daughter of Frank P. Allyn, a wealthy Wayne county farmer, was arrested yesterday in the village of Meedon, near Rochester, N. Y., on a warrant charging her with murder in the first degree. The crime is alleged to have been committed by Mrs. Sampson was the shooting of her husband, Harry Sampson, nephew of the late Admiral Sampson. The arrest came as the culmination of an inquest, which has lasted since November 5.

Sampson was shot November 1 at the Allyn farm, 3 miles from Meedon. The house was arranged for two families, and he and his wife occupied the west wing. The apartments of his father-in-law were on the opposite side of the house. At 7:30 o'clock that morning there was a quarrel between Harry Sampson and his wife over a letter which Mrs. Sampson had received from a Fairport man, with whom she is alleged to have been intimate. Mr. Allyn, the girl's father, tried to adjust matters between the two, but Sampson declared that he would leave his wife.

Twenty minutes later he ran in the east wing with blood streaming from a bullet wound in his chest, and fell dead at the feet of his mother-in-law. There were no smoke stains or powder marks on his breast or on either his inner or outer shirt. Georgia Sampson ran into the room after he fell. She said she was in an upper room when she heard the shot. For four days the theory of suicide, based on Sampson's words to Mr. Allyn, were believed. Then the Sampson family heard about the absence of smoke stains and powder marks. They learned that the gun was not thrown on the floor as would have been the case if it were suicide, but was placed carefully in a corner, and that Sampson held a package of cheese in his hands as he fell dying. Mrs. Sampson asserts that she is innocent.

Sampson was prominent socially, as was also his wife. The Allyn family is one of the oldest and wealthiest in Wayne county.

SEARCHING FOR DESPERATE NEGRO.

A posse headed by Chief of Police Diaharon and Deputy Sheriff Waller, of Salisbury, Md., are searching the swamps and woods for Fambro Persons, a negro rap shooter, who early yesterday morning shot and seriously wounded Policeman James Crouch, and later defied the police, declaring he would die fighting. The negro is a desperate character and is armed.

The shooting occurred early yesterday morning, when Persons and several companions were surprised in a craps game by Crouch, who is a man of daring. On the outskirts of the town and when Crouch arrived he told the negroes that they were under arrest and were to accompany him to jail. With an oath, Persons refused to do so, declaring he would die first. Before the policeman could draw Persons had whipped out his revolver and began firing. Only two of the shots took effect, though the policeman was completely at the mercy of his assailant.

STEAMSHIP CONSOLIDATION.

The incorporation at Portland, Me., yesterday of a new $40,000,000 corporation to be known as the Atlantic, Gulf and West Indies Steamship Lines, with Henry R. Mallory as president, and with substantial backing by Boston bankers was in line with a plan formulated by interested parties to save from complete wreck the Consolidated Steamship Company, promoted by Charles W. Morse, of New York. The lines to be taken over by the new corporation are those operating from New York southward. The Boston men among the incorporators are Henry Hornblower, of the banking firm of Hornblower & Weeks, and Galen L. Stone, of the banking firm of Hayden, Stone & Co.
